Fully Funded, LLC acquires ImprovingChurch.com

Anderson, SC – Fully Funded, LLC announces the completion of its acquisition of ImprovingChurch.com, an organization committed to providing resources which help improve churches. This is in alignment with the Fully Funded strategy of helping pastors and church leaders grow giving and experience a fully funded vision.

The company plans to continue the ongoing activities of ImprovingChurch.com while also integrating the initiatives, products, and services offered by Fully Funded to help churches increase regular giving. This includes the Fully Funded membership service as well as partnering with other organizations to provide special offers to church leaders through MinistryDeal.com.

This acquisition is in alignment with the “one-stop-shop stewardship services” strategy outlined by Joseph Sangl, President & CEO of the Complete Stewardship family of organizations. “It is our goal to be able to provide everything a church needs to experience a fully funded vision. Whether through acquisition or strategic partnership, we want to be able to serve our partner churches completely with products and services necessary to fund their God-given vision.”
